Case Coordination

ACD works with the participant, their family and significant others in the provision of this Support service to achieve agreed goals for a child or young person.

ACD is registered with the NDIS as a provider of Case Coordination (also known as Coordinator/Coordination of Supports) at three levels:

1. Support Connection
2. Support Coordination
3. Specialist Support Coordination

Our staff * are well qualified, highly skilled and knowledgeable about:

- ◇ Disability and functioning
- ◇ Development through the lifespan
- ◇ AAC, Assistive Devices, Technology and Connectivity
- ◇ Planning for Education (e.g. Individual Education Plans, Personal Learning Plans)
- ◇ Planning for Transitions: Pre-school, in School, Post-school, Training and Employment
- ◇ Disability and Trauma
- ◇ Mental Health and Disability
- ◇ Family needs and stressors

Empowering

Our Wraparound Case Coordination model is:

- ◇ Person Centered
- ◇ Collaborative and Inclusive
- ◇ Committed and Unconditional
- ◇ Focused on the individual's and the family's strengths
- ◇ Multidisciplinary
- ◇ Rights based
- ◇ Directed at achieving goals
- ◇ Flexible
- ◇ Accountable

* ACD Staff include:

- ◇ Developmental Educators
- ◇ Disability and Early Intervention Specialists
- ◇ Counsellors
- ◇ Disability Education Specialists

Connecting

ACD Case coordinators will work with you to:

- ◇ Investigate and Identify options to suit your budget and funding flexibility
- ◇ Monitor and track NDIS funding
- ◇ Collate the participant's multiple goals, assessments, and plans into one coherent plan that is easy to manage and monitor
- ◇ Provide continuity and connection across services, therapies and activities
- ◇ Manage complex supports and resolve crises
- ◇ Report and communicate frequently with the participant, family, services and the NDIS
- ◇ Address Barriers
- ◇ Provide Training
- ◇ Provide Complex Care and Health Plans
