WORKING WITH FAMILIES

ACD Presents a WORKSHOP AND TRAINING package for service providers and individuals that is challenging and informative, and provokes a new way of thinking about the relationship between families and service providers.

The premise of the training is that families engage with community services as a part of healthy family functioning. ACD promotes a collective empowerment focus, assisting families to identify and achieve the goals they set as a family and with individual family members.

The workshop is aimed at building the capacity of service providers to work with families in a way that empowers both the family and the service provider, and promotes collaboration and partnership between families and service providers.

The ACD Working with Families Training Package is adaptable to your service needs, and will greatly benefit any individual working with families and specifically:
